

TERMS & CONDITIONS OF THE PERSONAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS PROGRAM

Confidentiality Agreement

Trust must be a verb before it is a noun. You must trust and be trustworthy to be trusted. It is one of the most, if not the most, important factors in the partnership.

Mentoring pairs will share information about one another throughout the association. Partners must be very clear on the limits they want to place on the information shared. Establishing clear boundaries is a big step toward building trust.

The important thing is that both partners concur with the Confidentiality Agreement.

1. What we discuss will stay between us.
2. What we discuss will stay between us, unless we give each other permission or ask that the information be shared with others.

Mentoring Agreement

Mentoring is a “get and give” experience with the goal of providing a rich and rewarding experience for all partners. All partners must be respectful of each other’s time and commitments. Through the program, you will develop a schedule. Each partner is to keep a copy, and one is to be turned in to the program manager.

If unforeseen events arise and meeting time/day must be changed, we will give our mentoring partner at least 24 hour(s) notice if possible.

By checking the box, I agree to this agreement.
