

Ismael Gbadamassi

Chief Financial Officer, The Bloc, Inc.

Before Joining The Bloc, Ismael held the position of Chief Financial Officer at All Nations House of Worship. A position he still holds. Before that, he was a Managing Partner of Goyi Store, one of the first ethnic grocery stores in Omaha, and is a Business Consultant for OKRA African Grill, a local restaurant.

Ismael also holds DOT Commercial Licenses and has been a Transportation Operations Coordinator for Lyman-Richey Corporation for over nine years. Ismael is an avid traveler during his free time. When not traveling, you can find him providing luxury transportation to locals and tourists in the metro area to soothe his thirst for human connection and getting acquainted with the city.

Ismael is originally from Togo and is fluent in French. He is always interested in learning new things and helping others better themselves.
